Dear Sir,

Advisory

Greetings from the Philippine Red Cross – Ilocos Norte Chapter:

The Philippine Red Cross is organizing HEALTH CARAVAN to extend basic health services to the most vulnerable and the most deprived kakailians in Ilocos Norte. This aims to reach communities in far flung areas to promote, improve and educate them about better health.

The Health Caravan is composed of different activities such as 1.) Medical Mission; free consultation and medicines, 2.) Healthy lectures on health awareness; disease prevention and hygiene promotion, 3.) First aid lecture and bandaging demo, 4.) Blood sugar testing, 5.) Bloodletting, 6) Gift giving and food packs distribution. Along with us are our ever-supportive sponsors to share their blessings.

This time, we are targeting students, families and communities within Colo-Mabaleng Elementary School as the recipient of this humanitarian activity. In this regard, please allow us to use the open covered court as our venue. This will be on October 23, 2024, Wednesday at 8:00 am to 12:00 noon.

Hoping for your positive response and consideration.

Thank you and God bless!

Sincerely,

Edna L. Orcino
